

Committed to Community

At Repsol, we understand the importance of community. Having a safe place where children can play and neighbours can meet is key to developing that connection. That's why we supported the equipment upgrade to the Dovercourt Community Hall playground. We're proud to help create a space where residents can gather for generations to come.

*Learn more about this initiative and other community activities in Repsol's 2017 Community Report

Visit www.repsol.ca