Town of Rocky Mountain House is looking for two (2) members-at-large to sit on the North Saskatchewan River Park (NSRP) – Part Nine Company (Board)

This is a not-for-profit board that will be responsible for the implementation of long-term operational and capital needs of the park. In accordance with the Recreation Master Plan the NSRP will be developed into a special events centre that will host a variety of events. New opportunities to host at the park will require planning both operationally and for the capital components.

We are looking for enthusiastic individuals who will be required to most likely meet once a month (meeting dates and time to be determined).

Members must be a resident of the Town of Rocky Mountain House and you may submit your resumé to:
